General Instructions

PRICES are strictly net and subject to no discounts whatever.

ORDERS UNDER ONE DOLLAR. Without exception all orders of $1.00 or under must be accompanied by cash. The small margin of profit will not warrant the extra expense of charging, book-keeping, etc.

HOW TO ORDER

USE OUR REGULAR ORDER BLANK, if one is on hand; if not, use plain paper, in which case give page number in Catalogue, also amount in full of each item. Additional order blanks will be sent on request.

WRITE PLAINLY AND IN FULL, using ink, if possible.

YOUR NAME, POST OFFICE ADDRESS in full, giving the State and County, also street number, if you have any.

EXPRESS POINT also, if different from your P. O. Address. When possible we send by express—it is safer for you.

AMOUNT OF MONEY ENCLOSED. Include always postage and prepaid express where quoted. Any excess will be promptly returned. (Where remittances are short we send to the amount of the remittance only.)

SHOULD YOU CHANGE YOUR ADDRESS please notify us, giving old as well as new address in full.

PLEASE DO NOT ASK FOR FREE SAMPLES, unless we have advertised same, nor for discounts upon quantities. It is impossible for us to grant these requests.

HOW TO SEND MONEY

We recommend the following safe and convenient ways of remitting by mail:

Post-Office Money Order

Express Money Order

Check or Bank Draft

International Money Order (If from Canada or foreign country).

We guarantee remittance by any one of these ways to reach us, and we will protect you from loss if they go astray.

Make Money Orders, Checks, etc., payable to "MacCalla & Company Inc."

Registered Letters are safer than unregistered ones, but are not so safe as Money Order, Check or Draft. If you remit by Registered Letter we advise the use of two envelopes, one inside the other, and the outer one carefully and securely sealed.

MONEY BY MAIL. Do not send currency or coin by open mail as it may never reach us, in which case a great amount of trouble and inconvenience is caused as well as the loss you sustain.

POSTAGE STAMPS. It is at your own risk if you remit in stamps without registering the letter. If you send stamps carefully wrap them in wax paper, otherwise they reach us stuck together and consequently are useless. Foreign stamps cannot be accepted.

SPECIAL STAMPS. Revenue stamps, due stamps, or obsolete stamps will not be accepted.

WORN COINS will not be accepted. When gold or silver becomes worn so as to be light in weight, it is not worth full value.

REMIT SUFFICIENT MONEY. In all cases be sure to remit full amount of order. Where postage or prepaid express are quoted, be sure to remit full amount of transportation. In nine cases out of ten you will save considerable money by this.

When in doubt regarding any price, remit too much rather than too little. Any excess will be returned promptly.

Where payments are short we send to the amount of the remittance only.

Your attention to the matter of remittances as above will save much unnecessary correspondence and delay.

REGARDING SHIPMENTS. Where it is much cheaper for you to have us prepay a package than to send collect, we take the liberty of prepaying and sending to the amount of your remittance. This applies to those goods on which we quote prices without delivery.

Whenever it is cheaper to send by Express we do so.

When packages expected by Mail do not arrive promptly, inquire at Express Office.

It sometimes happens that it is necessary to send your order in two or more packages. If one package should come ahead, the other will follow shortly, unless you receive instructions to the contrary.

No. 85 LETTER.

The star above the Bethlehem manger shone down upon the Life which is the image and brightness of the Love Eternal, and upon the loving mother bending over Him. By which love all of our hearts are touched anew as oft as the story is told. This love prompts good wishes and good thoughts for those of our friends who know the beautiful Christmas spirit. And so I am thinking of you on this Christmas Day and wishing for you happiness, prosperity, peace and Beautiful Days. May the morrow ever be happier than yesterday, may autumn seem as spring and winter as summer. I wish for you that life may grow more beautiful through the changing years.

A Christmas Recipe.

Add to your meal some merriment,
And a thought for kith and kin,
And then, as a prime ingredient,
A plenty of wit thrown in.
But spice it all with the essence of love
And a little whiff of play—
Let a wise old book and a glance above
Complete a well-spent day.

It 'Will Make a Real Live Snow Storm.

Cornes folded up in small space—everything complete. It is operated by just pulling a string. It is arranged in a simple manner above the stage, hidden from view by the decorations or draperies, is easily understood, and can be put up and operated by anyone. Some time before the entertainment begins you fill the machine with paper snow which comes free with every machine and all is ready.

It can be used with telling effect at any point of a performance; and if introduced at or near the end, will make a stirring climax to the whole. The directions explain everything so clearly that you can't go wrong. One machine consists of seven sections as shown above, and can be put up in any hall or church by simply attaching to side walls by means of screw hooks, which come with each machine. The machine will throw the snow to cover a floor space of about twelve feet, and can be used over again by refilling.

Price complete, with full directions, $1.75, prepaid.

Extra filling of snow, 30 cents.

The Toyland Series of Juvenile Gift Books.

The Snow Man's Christmas. How the Indian Suit Ran Away. The Wreck of the Nursery Flyer.
By MARY HERRICK BIRD. The three books in a decorated box, 80 cts.

These books are intended for very young children. There is a minimum of story and a maximum of illustration; each book containing twenty-four color plates by Joseph C. Claghorn. They are particularly interesting because they appeal to the child's love of personifying everything that he sees; and here we have his dearest possessions, his toys, actually "doing things." They are printed on heavy enameled paper, bound in cloth, and have an inlay picture in full color on the cover. Size,  $4\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$  inches. 87 pages each.

The Castle of Grumpy Grouch.

By MARY DICKERSON DONAHEY.

75 cts., postpaid.

A delightful child's story, in which the little Princess loses her temper and hunts for it until it is recovered. A fancy story principally, but containing a very wholesome moral. Eight full-page color plates by J. R. Clay and seventy pen-drawings by Ruth Elliott Newton. Full cloth, stamped in colors. 151 pages. Size,  $7\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ .

The Diary of a Birthday Doll.

By ETHEL C. DOW.

$1.10, postpaid.

One of the most interesting child's stories ever written. Each chapter tells of the happenings of one day, which gives the tale the character of a diary. Six full-page color plates, by Florence England Nosworthy; twenty-seven pen-drawings by Louise Clark Smith. A beautiful piece of bookmaking, bound in cloth; an inlay picture in full color on the cover. Each book in a decorated box, sealed in a glass-tissue paper wrapper. With each book is sent a reply post card, which, if mailed to the publishers, will entitle the sender to a beautiful reproduction, in full color, of the picture on the cover of the book; size,  $12 \times 16$  inches, without advertising. 88 pages.

Fairy Tales from Grimm.

Edited and with a critical introduction

By HAMILTON W. MABIE.

Six full-page color plates, six full-page pen-drawings and border decorations. $1.25, postpaid.

A purely American edition of this famous classic. Mr. Mabie has selected twelve tales as being characteristic of, and representing the whole. His introduction is a new and valuable feature, bringing one, as it does, to an understanding of the conditions under which the stories originated, how they grew and spread all over the world, and why they will be popular as long as there are children to read them. Bound in cloth, with a cut-out color inlay on the cover. 132 pages. Size,  $8\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{4}$  inches. Text printed in two colors.
